Custom Pad-Printing

Do you have an idea on a specific printed pattern for your lure but had no one to help you make it a reality? Perhaps you have a company logo that stands out on your packaging but not on your fishing lure. Worth can help you put it where your customers can see it... at the end of their fishing line.

Our multicolor pad-printing process can reproduce your logo or custom design for a spectacular one-of-a-kind lure, guaranteed to dazzle anglers everywhere.

All designs shown are registered trademarks and cannot be reproduced without their authorization.

Because pad-printing inks are not 100% opaque, the pad-printed ink color may look slightly different depending on the color the blade has been painted.

Also be aware that some color combinations may not provide enough color contrast to effectively show your logo or message.
